PROTECTION PLANS

Rest easy when you sign up for a Budget Protection Plan.

SLI — Supplemental Liability Insurance

What is Supplemental Liability Insurance (SLI)?

Budget has Supplemental Liability Insurance (SLI) available at participating U.S. locations. SLI is a special optional service offered by Budget when you rent a Budget car. It's an "Excess Automobile Liability Insurance Policy" that provides additional liability insurance, within specified limits, above the limits provided in the Budget rental agreement. SLI insures you, and any authorized driver as defined in the Budget rental agreement, against claims made by third parties against you, the customer, for bodily injury/death and property damage caused by the use or operation of a Budget rental vehicle as permitted in the Budget rental agreement. SLI is a separate insurance policy issued to Budget by ACE American Insurance Company. It is made available to you as the customer when renting a Budget vehicle if you elect to accept SLI for an additional daily charge as shown on the Budget rental agreement.

What are the coverage limits provided by SLI?

The SLI coverage limits equal the difference between the SLI maximum $1,000,000 combined single limit (or $2,000,000 combined single limit in the following jurisdictions: California, Florida, Hawaii and New York) and the liability protection limits provided under the Budget rental agreement. Note that in all states we only offer $1,000,000 combined single limit on 10, 12, and 15 passenger vans.

When and where does SLI coverage apply?

You and authorized operators are covered while driving your Budget rental vehicle within the United States and Canada, but only if the vehicle is rented and returned in the United States.

Coverage does not apply in Mexico.

How does SLI affect the application of your automobile or umbrella insurance policy?

Your personal insurance policy providing coverage on an owned automobile, or other personal policy, may provide additional coverage, and to that extent, SLI may provide a duplication of coverage. Whether, at what point and to what extent your own policies apply can only be determined by checking the terms of the policies themselves as these terms frequently vary. However, the protection afforded by SLI (if SLI is accepted), like the Budget rental agreement limits of protection, is primary to your own policies. This means that before your own policies would apply to pay a claim, the $1,000,000 protection (or $2,000,000 protection in the following jurisdictions: California, Florida, Hawaii and New York) afforded by the combination SLI and the Budget rental agreement limits would have to be exhausted. Note, in all states we only offer $1,000,000 combined single limit on 10, 12, and 15 passenger vans.

What exclusions apply to SLI?

All exclusions, terms and conditions are stated in the policy; it is important that you read the policy carefully. The following highlights some of the exclusions that would preclude coverage:

- if you or authorized operators use, or permit the use of your Budget rental vehicle in a manner that violates the Budget rental agreement;

- if you obtain your Budget rental vehicle by fraud or misrepresentation;
- to the extent permitted by law, to bodily injury or property damage to any Insured or authorized drivers or any person who is related to any Insured by blood, marriage or adoption and residing in the same household;
- "Uninsured Motorist"/"Underinsured Motorist" are not provided by the policy except in states where mandated by law up to a maximum amount of $100,000 or in such other amount as mandated by state law;
- "No Fault" and other supplemental or optional coverages are not provided by the policy;
- punitive or exemplary damages to extent permitted by law.

Are there any special restrictions on the purchase of SLI?

In Florida, SLI may not be purchased where the Budget rental agreement is for more than 30 days, coverage may not be provided for more than 30 consecutive days and if the Budget rental agreement is extended beyond 30 days, the coverage may be extended for one time only, for a period not to exceed 30 days. In New York, SLI may not be purchased where the rental period exceeds 30 consecutive days.

LDW — Loss Damage Waiver

Better than insurance:

Even for renters with insurance, the Loss Damage Waiver (LDW) may be a wise choice.

When renting a vehicle, you are generally responsible for all loss of and damage to the rented vehicle, regardless of fault, subject to all applicable state and local laws.

LDW is not insurance. It is a waiver by Budget of all or part of your financial responsibilities for:

- All loss of and damage to the rented vehicle —which could be as high as its full replacement value, if the vehicle is "totaled";
- Loss of use — revenue lost to Budget due to the inability to rent the vehicle while being repaired; and
- Administrative expenses relating to the vehicle.

You can avoid or limit this responsibility by purchasing LDW where available at participating locations, subject to all applicable state and local laws.

Simply stated, when you purchase LDW, Budget will pick up the tab for these costs. Your own insurance company won't even have to be contacted. Your ability to purchase LDW is, however, subject to all applicable state and local laws. All LDW availability and terms vary by state. For terms that apply to your rental, check the front page notice and paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 of your rental agreement. Additional information may also be contained in brochures, notices or on signs at the rental counter.

Texas law requires us to make certain disclosures to renters in connection with this offer or the sale of a rental car damage waiver. Due to recent changes in this law, your personal automobile policy may or may not provide coverage for your legal liability in connection with the loss of or damage to a rental vehicle or may otherwise exclude or restrict such coverages.

ESP — Emergency Sickness Protection

ESP is available only to non-US resident renters. It provides certain medical benefits for some sicknesses that occur during rental periods of thirty days or less.

ESP also covers the renter's non-US resident passenger traveling companions accompanying them during the Rental Period. In the event of a claim by a person other than the renter, written proof (such as travel itineraries prepared by a travel agent) must be provided to document that the person was a member of the renter's traveling party.

ESP provides a total maximum of $10,000* for Physician-ordered medical services for a covered sickness, including:

- medical or surgical treatment;
- hospital services, supplies, X-ray and laboratory fees;
- local ambulance;
- visits to a physician's office; and
- dental expenses including dental X-rays.

* Benefit maximum is $15,000 in KS, MO, WA
For renters in CT, IN, KS, MO, MT, NY, VT, VA, and WA, ESP also includes a Trip Interruption Benefit. It provides up to $250 for unused travel arrangement expenses, including pre-paid car rental fees, in the event the rental period is interrupted due to sickness, injury, or death of the renter, a traveling companion, or a family member. Terms and benefit details vary by state.
 There is a $100 deductible per covered sickness.
